Plays of the Day

Montana Timmons (Wabash) doubled in three runs in the top of the 12th inning leading Wellsville to a 6-2 win over Hornell.

The Salt Cats Mike Mascari (SUNY Oswego) drove in the go ahead run in the fifth inning of the second game in a doubleheader sweep of Sherrill.

5 DAYS TILL PLAYOFFS

PLAYOFF PREVIEW #3

TODAY’S GAMES

Utica Brewers at Syracuse Salt Cats, LeMoyne College Field, Syracuse, NY - Noon
The Salt Cats are fighting to hold on to the fourth and final playoff spot in the Eastern Division.

Rochester (AIA) (Lake Ontario Ridgemen) vs Wellsville Nitros, Wellsville Central, Wellsville, NY - 1p, 4p - DH
Wellsville needs to win its last three and have the Geneva Twins lose its last three to force a play-in game for the fourth and final spot in the Western Division.

Niagara Power vs Geneva Twins, McDonough Park, Geneva, NY - 3p, 5p - DH
Geneva is one win or one Wellsville loss from clinching the fourth and final playoff spot in the Western Division.

Geneva Red Wings vs Adirondack Trailblazers, Robert Smith, Boonville, NY - 7p
The Red Wings are one game out of the fourth and final playoff spot in the East with five games to go.

Olean Oilers at Hornell Dodgers, Maple City Park, Hornell, NY - 4p, 7p
A Hornell sweep today clinches a tie for the Western division championship.

Playoff Preview #3 - Adirondack Trailblazers
The Trailblazer franchise moved from Rome to Boonville for the 2012 season. The Boonville community has welcomed the ball club with open arms. The venue offers tiered tailgate parking, traditional fan seating and full concessions.

The ballclub delivers as well between the lines. The Rogers State contingent of Eric Baker and the Campbell brothers have combined for 24 homeruns and 76 RBI. Ian Tresser (Fairfield) (3-0, 3.57 ERA) leads the pitching staff. Closer Geoff Soja (Niagara) (7 saves, 0.00 ERA) shuts the door on opponents at the end of games.

The mountain men from Boonville will present enormous challenges to its playoff opponents.