Plays of the Day
Thomas Richards (University of Buffalo) singled in the winning run giving Olean a 9-8 win in game one of a DH with Hornell.

Two walks and three singles allowed the Geneva Twins to score three runs in the bottom of the first enroute to a 4-2 win and a spot in the playoffs.

NYCBL
GAMEDAY

4 DAYS TILL PLAYOFFS
PLAYOFF PREVIEW #4
TODAY’S GAMES

Adirondack Trailblazers at Syracuse Salt Cats, Falcon Park, Auburn, NY - 4p, 7p
The Salt Cats are in a three way dog fight with the Red Wings and Sherrill for the 3rd and 4th playoff seeds in the East.

Hornell Dodgers at Olean Oilers, Fred Handler Park, Olean, NY - 5p
A Dodger win clinches the western division.

The Jr Chiefs clinch the western division with a win. The Red Wings are fighting for a playoff spot.

Wellsville at Rochester (AIA), Basket Rd Field, Webster, NY - 7p
The Red Wings are one game out of the fourth and final playoff spot in the East with five games to go.

Playoff Preview #4 - Geneva Twins
2012 is the first season for the franchise in Geneva (Webster franchise moved). Two NYCBL franchises (Red Wings and Twins) have kept McDonough Stadium very busy hosting 40 ball games in 60 days.

The ball club is led offensively by Dillon Hamlin (Seton Hall) with a .306 batting average and by Michael Allen (Davenport University) 5 homeruns and 25 RBI.

Jon Menke (University of Rochester) leads the pitching staff. Menke is 4-1 carrying a 1.85 ERA. Justin Ratte (Flagler) is 5-3 with a 2.31 ERA.

The Twins have been a tough opponent all year. Seven of their losses were by one run.