Game Previews: By Jake Dennstedt
Rochester AIA at Hornell, 11:00 am
Hornell- Well familiarity won’t be a problem when these two clubs match-up on Thursday. The Dodgers are coming off a 7-6 walk of win in the bottom of the ninth against this same AIA club. This will be the second consecutive day the two teams will play in front of a kid’s day crowd at Maple City Park. Wednesday game drew around 300 elementary school students to watch the game.

This morning’s pitching match up features Zack Hedges (Azusa Pacific U) for the visiting Rochester AIA Club while Phillip Hathcock (North Carolina Central) who makes his first start of the summer for the Dodgers.

Utica at Syracuse JR, 5:00 pm
Syracuse- The JR Chiefs have had not luck with the weather this summer already having a league high two games canceled. This will be the second meeting of the season between the clubs, the first that saw the JR Chiefs defeat the Brewers by the score of 7-2. A few key players to watch in today’s match up include for the JR Chiefs are outfield Dave Wolak (Elmhurst) and catcher Corey Caswell (Ithaca College). Wolak who is amongst the league leaders in several offensive categories comes in tied for third in the league in runs batted in while Caswell is tied for the league lead with a .556 batting average. A key guy to watch for the Brewers is Eros Modena (Indian River State). Modena comes in with a .323 batting average and has reached base safely in all eight games this season for the Brewers.

The visiting Brewers will send Tony DiMaio (Waubonsee CC) to the mound while the JR Chiefs hand the ball to Keenan Stare (East Stroudsburg).

Olean at Niagara, 7:00pm

Niagara- Coming into this evening’s game there is no one hotter than the expansion Olean Oilers. The Oilers have won five straight and have shown they are capable of doing it both offensively as well as on the mound. The Oilers won the previous meeting last Friday by the score of 10-5. The Power will be looking to get back to the .500 mark before they welcome in the Dodgers for a weekend three-game series. The Oilers have several that are amongst the league leaders including Joe Pantano (Erie CC) who is tops amongst runs scored and batting average. Adam Taylor (North Greenville U) comes in with a team best .421 batting average for the Power.

Mike Tolsma (Erie CC) takes the ball for the visiting Oilers while Seth Eller (Mt Vernon Nazarene) goes for the Power.

Sherrill at Geneva RW, 7:00pm

Geneva- This marks the meeting of the season between the two clubs. The teams split the first two meetings of the year with each of the home teams winning. The Red Wings won the first meeting by a score of 9-2 while the Silversmiths returned the favor yesterday afternoon with their 4-3 victory. The Silversmiths are hovering around the .500 mark and will be looking to move about it with a victory this evening. The Silversmiths come in having won just one of their four road games while the Red Wings have yet to lose at home in front of the home fans at McDonough Park.

The Silversmiths will send Jordan Doroshenko (St John Fisher) to the mound while the Red Wings answer with Jeff Croteau (Bentley).
