The Daily Recap:

Hornell 11, Wellsville 6

WELLSVILLE, N.Y. -- Thad Johnson (St. Bonaventure) led the Hornell 12-hit attack with a 3-for-4 day and Jordan Accetta (Wofford) struck out four in four innings as the Dodgers went on to beat the Wellsville Nitros 11-6. Hornell moves to 2-0 with the win while the Nitros still seek their first win at 0-3.

Rochester 6, Twins 2

GENEVA, N.Y. – Casey Whittle (Union College) threw seven innings and allowed only one earned run while picking up a win for the Ridgemen. Will Bass (New Mexico JC) contributed to Rochester’s steady attack going 2-5 with two RBI and two runs scored. Tre Edwards (Murray St.) went 2-3 and had one of the two RBI for the Twins.

Sherrill 14, Salt Cats 3

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The Silversmiths offense was clicking on all cylinders Tuesday night, putting up 17 hits as they went on to beat the Salt Cats 14-3. Kaden Shaffer (Ft. Scott CC) went 5-5 with an RBI and scored two runs for Sherrill. Matt Mastroianni (SUNY Oneonta) went 2-2 for the Salt Cats as they took the loss and moved to 2-1 on the season.

Niagara 9, Geneseed 3

HOUGHTON, N.Y. – Despite going 3-4 on the day with an RBI, Andrew Bonnette (Walsh) and the Rapids fell to the Power 9-3. Niagara’s Josh Shulman (University of Rochester) fanned three batters in five and a third innings during his first win of the season. Chad Muise (Houghton) earned four runs and allowed 10 hits in loss. Niagara improves their record to 1-1 while Geneseed falls to 1-2.

Oneonta @ Cortland- Postponed

CORTLAND, N.Y. – The game between the Outlaws and the Crush was postponed last night. It will be played as part of a doubleheader on June 9th at 5:00 pm.

NYCBL Game of the Day: Wednesday, June 4, 2014:

Hornell @ Rochester, 7:00pm
>Two undefeated teams battle at “The Basket” tonight as the Ridgemen host the Dodgers. Rochester will look to keep their 3-0 record perfect by marching Cedarville University's Connor Hamilton to the mound. Hamilton, who went 5-2 with a 3.29 ERA for Ceadarville, will be supported by a strong Ridgemen defense that has not allowed more than three runs this season.

The Dodgers hope to continue their success from last year after they finished as league finalists. They will start Connor Grey of St. Bonaventure University. Grey had 44 strikeouts for the Bonnies this year, a staff best. Hornell will also need Brandon Sandoval (Vanguard) to build on his team-best five RBI against this solid Rochester defense.

Hitter of the Day: Kaden Shaffer, Sherrill Silversmiths
5-5, RBI, 2b, two runs scored

Shaffer (Fort Scott CC) paced a 17-hit attack as Sherrill won for the first time this season. The Ottawa, Kansas native sparked a two-out rally in the first with a double. He singled and scored in the third and helped the Smitties put numbers on the board in each of the first five innings.

Pitcher of the Day: Casey Whittle, SP, Rochester Ridgemen
W, 1-0, 7.0 IP, 1 ER, 3 BB, 5 H, 2 K, .200 OAVG, .286 OOB P

Whittle (Union College) had a strong seven-inning performance during his first win for the Ridgemen. He surrendered just one earned run and finished the day with a 1.29 ERA as Rochester beat the Geneva Twins 6-2. Although he only struck out two of the 28 batters he faced, Whittle managed to hold the Twins to just five hits during his season debut.

NYCBL Alumni Update: Jon Kemmer, OF, Olean ’12

Kemmer was picked up in the 21st round of the 2013 Draft by the Houston Astros. He spent 2013 with the Tri-City ValleyCats of the New York-Penn League where he finished his season with a .221 average and 16 RBIs in 65 games. Kemmer’s 2014 season with the Quad City River Bandits of Class A has been a productive one so far. In just 28 games, he is batting .295 with 20 runs scored and has a .362 OBP. With 10 doubles on the season, the former Oiler has already surpassed his 2013 season total of seven. The most notable part of Kemmer’s game this season has been his slugging percentage which, at .505, is currently third best on the team.
