Syracuse JR at Sherrill, 5:00pm
Sherrill- The Syracuse Junior Chiefs will travel to Noyes Park to face the Sherrill Silversmiths. The Chiefs are currently 0-1 on the season and look to get in the win column today against a second place Sherrill team in the Eastern Division. The Silversmiths defeated the Salt Cats last night for the second time this season while the Junior Chiefs fell in their season opening game up in Boonville by the score of 8-5. The Junior Chiefs won the season series a year ago going 6-2 against the Silversmith and will look to continue that domination when they lock up this afternoon.

Ethan Striz (Ave Maria University) for the Junior Chiefs and Jesus Hernandez (University of Maryland Eastern Shore) for Silversmiths each make their first starts of the season.

Olean at Geneva Twins, 7:00pm
Geneva- Oilers will travel to Geneva to face the Twins for the second time this season. The Oilers took game one with a close 3-2 victory on Sunday afternoon. The Twins would rally in the 8th with a pair of singles to lead off the inning by Matt Anthonis (Western New England College) and Nate Langhalls (University of Toledo) knocking starter Brandon Nemati (Erie CC) before closer Cody Petre (Monroe CC) would come on to close out the game for the Oilers and shut the Twins down. The Twins look to take back a win today against the Oilers and even the score between the two clubs, as this is the second of eight meeting this season.

Zach Machmer (Medaille College) will be on the hill for the Oilers while Zach Connelly (University of Tampa) will get the start for the Twins.
