Game Previews: By Jake Dennstedt

Hornell at Wellsville, 5:00pm
Wellsville- These teams matched up just a week ago on a rain soaked field on opening day. In a game that seen the visiting Dodgers come in a spoil the Nitros openers. The Nitros will be looking to make up some ground in the standings and avenge the early season loss when the Dodgers roll into town this afternoon. Each team is coming off wins last night and will be looking to continue their winning ways.

The Dodgers will send Kevin Johnson (Pittsburgh University) to the mound while the Nitros counter with Cameron Longfels (Eastern Kentucky)

Sherrill at Geneva RW, 7:00pm
Geneva- The Red Wings jump-started their 2012 season in grand fashion last night at McDonough Park last night. In a game that seen the home standing Red Wings fall to a 3-0 deficit early then rally back to take the lead before holding off a late JR Chiefs rally. The Silversmiths will make their first ever trip to McDonough Park and will be looking to stay above the .500 mark.

The visiting Silversmiths send Tom Dybas (St. John Fisher) to the mound while the Red Wings give the ball to Aaron Benusis (Alvernia) who is the reigning Commonwealth Conference Pitcher of the Year.

Olean at Niagara, 7:00pm
Niagara Falls- This will be the first meeting of the season between these two clubs after mother nature spoiled last Friday’s initial match up. The Power haven’t played an actual NYCBL regular season game since last Saturday when they seen Adam Taylor (North Greenville U) smash a pair of home runs to lift the Power. Olean will be looking to get back into the win column after dropping it’s last game.

The Oilers have yet to name a starter while Kirby Wilson (Clearwater Christian) starts for the Power.
