The Daily Recap:

Twins 4 Wellsville 3 Game 1
Twins 12 Wellsville 0 Game 2
WELLSVILLE, N.Y. – Eddie Emes (Penn St. Greater Allegheny) hurled five shutout innings for the game-two win as the Twins won their fourth straight and six of seven. Geneva’s bullpen tossed 6.1 of shutout ball. Twins’ relievers haven’t surrendered an earned run in their last 23 innings pitched.

Sherrill 6 Cortland 0 Game 1
Sherrill 7 Cortland 0 Game 2
CORTLAND, N.Y. – David Wright (SUNY Oneonta) set the table slogging a complete game shutout in the opener. The southpaw fanned two and held the Crush to three hits. Daniel Jarrell (Washington College) and Dominick Pisciotta (St. John Fisher) combined on the game two effort. Alex Saville (Monroe CC) collected three hits and three RBI.

Red Wings 8 Salt Cats 2 Game 1
Red Wings 7 Salt Cats 2 Game 2
GENEVA, N.Y. – John Cruz (Dowling) paced the offense with five hits, four RBI, two runs scored and three stolen bases as the Red Wings jumped the Cats in the standings. Matt Kozemchak (Lehigh) allowed one earned over six innings of work for the game-one win. Syracuse left a combined 18 on base for the day.

Niagara 9 Genesee 6
NIAGARA, N.Y. – Caleb Lang (Philadelphia Biblical) sparked a decisive six-run fifth as the Power sent 10 to the plate and erased a three-run deficit. Lang finished the day a home run short of the cycle going 5-5 with two triples, a double and three RBI. Niagara has won seven straight.

Jr. Chiefs 5 Hornell 3
SYRACUSE, N.Y. – Matt McCann (Fairleigh Dickinson) drove in two with two hits including a two-out bases loaded single in a four-run sixth as the Jr. Chiefs won for the second time in as many games. Shawn Kanwisher (Manhattan) fanned four over six full for his first win of the campaign.

Olean 7 Oneonta 6
ONEONTA, N.Y. – Mark Lepri (St. Thomas Aquinas College) and James Ott (Bloomsburg) rapped back-to-back two-out RBI hits in a three-run eighth as the Oilers completed a comeback from five down and snapped a seven-game slide. Frank Rubio (University of Florida) started and struck out 11 over seven complete. The right-hander allowed two earned runs.
NYCBL Game of the Day:
Niagara at Hornell 5 p.m.

Maple City Park is the setting for the first of three straight between the Western Division leaders. Niagara takes a seven-game win streak into the contest while Hornell looks to recover from their first setback in seven games. Zach Krivda (Penn St. Greater Allegheny) gets the ball for Hornell while Niagara counters with Jack Moore (Colorado Christian). Moore is making his first start of the season. Krivda makes his third start for the Blue and White. The crafty lefty is 2-0 and has allowed one earned run in 12 innings of work.

Thad Johnson (St. Bonaventure) paces the Hornell offense with 22 hits. Brandon Sandoval (Vanguard) has 15 RBI for the Dodgers. Niagara's Ivan Acuna (Catawba Valley CC) leads the way with 15 hits and five RBI.

Hitter of the Day: Caleb Lang, CF Niagara Power
5-5, 3RBI, 2 RS, 2 Triples, Double

Lang (Philadelphia Biblical Institute) collected ten total bases in five at bats. His triple in the fifth plated two and sparked a decisive six-run frame as the Power rallied from three down for their seventh win a row. Lang has hit safely in his last four games.

Pitcher of the Day: David Wright, SP, Sherrill Silversmiths
9.0 IP, 0 R, 3 H, 1 BB, 2 K

The SUNY Oneonta sophomore shut down the Cortland Crush for his first win of the season. The lefty faced three over the minimum throwing 100 pitches on the day (66 for strikes). Wright retired the first six and did not allow a runner past second base. The Oneonta native faced the minimum over the last three innings.
