Today’s Games

SYRACUSE SALT CATS AT SYRACUSE JUNIOR CHIEFS,
HOPKINS ROAD PARK, SYRACUSE, NY - 1PM

The Salt Cats look to open their season on a high note following a disappointing 2012 campaign in which the team went 17-23, but finished on a high note closing out the year with a 6-4 record in the final 10 games. They were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs.

The defending champion Chiefs are coming off a big night following their sweep of the Sherrill Silversmiths in yesterday’s double header. Read the recap here.

Head-to-Head in 2012, The Chiefs took five of the eight games, outscoring the Salt Cats 72-21 in their five victories, highlighted by a 19-0 drubbing on July 12th.

Starting for the Salt Cats will be Max Schonfeld (Molloy). Sam Clarke (Mt. Union) will get the nod for the Chiefs.

WELLSVILLE NITROS AT OLEAN OILERS,
OLEAN HIGH SCHOOL, OLEAN, NY - 5PM

Following a tough 2012, the Wellsville Nitros are looking for a fresh start. A new home was not the key to new success in 2012 for the Nitros, who moved from Allegany to Wellsville before last season.

On the flip side, the Olean Oilers first start in the NYCBL couldn’t have gone much better. The team went 23-18 and made it as far as the first round of the playoffs. The challenge in 2013 will be to duplicate and improve upon 2012’s success with just two carry-overs from last year.

In their eight matchups last year, the Oilers won six, outscoring the Nitros 78-63. Both the Oilers and the Nitros set season-highs in runs scored in their matchup on June 30th, 2012, a game in which the Oilers won 21-17.

Brandon Valentin (Nova Southeastern) will start for the Oilers. Wellsville’s starter has yet to be determined.
