GAMEDAY

Syracuse Salt Cats at Sherrill Silversmiths, Noyes Park, Sherrill, NY-DH 1, 4 PM
Syracuse's Patrick Boyle will get his first start of the season against the .202-hitting Silversmiths. Sherrill will send Kevin Carpenter to the mound as he looks to bounce back from his previous start against the Salt Cats in which he surrendered nine runs (5 earned) in four innings. Game two features Syracuse's Michael Rynerson, who beat Sherrill in his only start back on June 5th. Scott Orr will get his first start of the season after two solid relief outings which saw him give up a single unearned run in 5.2 innings.

Probables Game 1: Syracuse-Patrick Boyle (Wooster) Sherrill- Kevin Carpentier (0-1 11.25 ERA)
Probables Game 2: Syracuse-Michael Rynerson (1-0 6.35 ERA) Sherrill-Scott Orr (0-0 0.00 ERA)

Hornell Dodgers at Wellsville Nitros, Wellsville Central, Wellsville, NY-5PM
The Hornell Dodgers have won just one game this season thanks in part to a .191 team batting average and scoring just 11 runs in five games. This doesn't bode well against the power-hitting Nitros who lead the league in home runs with seven. On top of it all, the Nitros have the third lowest team ERA in the league with a 2.54.

Probables Game: Hornell- TBD Wellsville-TBD

Geneva Twins at Oneonta Outlaws, Damaschke Field, Oneonta NY-7PM
Geneva's David Anderson has pitched once this season in a relief outing against the Geneva Red Wings on June ninth. He'll get a nice test against the 5th ranked hitting team in the NYCBL in Oneonta. Luke Crumley will start for the Outlaws, who, like Anderson, has only seen relief action so far this season. He allowed three runs to the Silversmiths back on June 9th, as he pitched four innings in relief. He faces the worst lineup in the league with regard to average, as the Twins have hit just .190 and scored only 10 runs in four games.

Probables Game: Geneva-David Anderson (0-0 0.00 ERA) Oneonta-Luke Crumley (0-0, 6.75 ERA)

Syracuse JR Chiefs at Geneva Red Wings, McDonough Park, Geneva, NY-7 PM
Ryan Clark looks to continue his dominant pitching when the Chiefs take on the Red Wings on Saturday night. The righty hurler will look to keep his streak of 13 shutout innings alive against the 8th-ranked scoring offense. Nicholas Myers will get the ball for the first time this season as he hopes to cool off the top ranked, .283-hitting Syracuse lineup.

Probables: Syracuse-Ryan Clark (1-0, 0.00 ERA) Geneva-Nicholas Myers (St. Michael's)

Olean Oilers at Rochester Ridgemen, Basket Road Field, Webster, NY-7 PM
Max Beermann and Dwayne Snider will attempt to best one another in a matchup that has the makings of a pitcher's duel. Beermann was solid (one run, three strikeouts) in a five-inning win against Hornell on June 8th, while Snider was sterling (two runs, six strikeouts) in an eight-inning loss to Niagara on June 9th. With the teams hitting for a combined .202, don't expect a lot of fireworks in this one.

Probables: Olean-Max Beerman (1-0, 1.85 ERA) Rochester-Dwayne Snider (0-1, 2.25 ERA)

Player of the Day

Bobby Twitty, OF, Niagara Power, St. Leo University

Twitty is no stranger to the “Player of the Day” distinction, and he continued his fantastic start with a stellar day (and night) at the plate going a combined 4-7 with 4 RBI, and 2 runs scored. In game one of Niagara’s double header against the Twins, Twitty went 2-4 but failed to drive in or score a run. The Power lost the game 3-2. In the nightcap, Twitty made sure to make his at bats count going 2-3 with a walk, driving in four, and scoring twice. His three-run home run ended up being the difference in the 6-3 victory. Twitty now leads the NYCBL with 9 rbi, and is second in base hits and home runs, with nine and two respectively.

Pitcher of the Day

John Patrick Kinney, Rochester Ridgemen, Lindenwood University

Kinney earned a shut out in his first start, going the distance in a seven-inning game against Wellsville. In those seven innings, Kinney struck out five while only walking two and surrendering just three hits. He starts the year with a spotless 0.00 ERA and stellar WHIP (walks and hits allowed per nine innings pitched) of .710. According to sabermetrics, batters are hitting just .158 when they put balls in play against Kinney.

Alumni of the Day

Andrew Carraway, Tacoma Rainiers, (Mariners AAA), ’06 Saratoga Phillies

After being taken in the 12th round of the 2009 MLB Draft, Carraway has steadily risen through the ranks of the Mariners farm system. After arriving in Triple-A last season the righty hurler recorded a 5-7 record and a 4.66 ERA. In 2013 Carraway has taken a step forward, going 6-2 in his first 12 starts with a quality 3.41 ERA. In 71.1 innings, Carraway has recorded 52 strikeouts good for a K/9 rate of 6.6. Consistent with his the rest of his career, Carraway allows a mere 2.78 walks per nine innings pitched, walking just 7.5 percent of the batters he faces.
