Today's Games

Syracuse Salt Cats at Sherrill Silversmiths
Noyes Park, Sherrill, NY - 5pm

The Salt Cats (1-0) look to establish their first winning streak of the season, while the Silversmiths (0-2) look for their first win. These two teams split their 8 games last year 4-4.

Probables: Syracuse SC-Michael Rynerson (St. John Fisher) Sherrill-Kevin Carpenter (Finger Lakes CC)

Olean Oilers at Wellsville Nitros
Wellsville Central, Wellsville, NY - 5pm

The Nitros struck first in the this year's head-to-head matchup with a resounding 7-1 win last night (recap linked below). The Oilers had a difficult time getting any kind of offense going and will look to get started early off of Ismael Velez.

Probables: Olean-Nick Donofry (Bloomsburg) Wellsville-Ismael Velez (Fisher)

A former member of the Syracuse Salt Cats, Fiorito made headlines when he was signed by the New York Yankees in 2012. Fiorito (Manhattanville), a Yonkers native and a two-time NYCBL All-Star, has hit .261, with 29 hits, 15 runs scored, and 7 RBI through his first 31 games with the Tampa Yankees (Single-A). The righty batter has made a name for himself for hitting lefties, posting a .364 average, reaching base in more than half his plate appearances against such pitchers (.512 OBP). Splitting time between shortstop and 3rd base, Fiorito has played exceptionally well in the field sporting a .944 fielding percentage, converting 84 of 89 chances.

Barley (St. John Fisher) had an impressive day at the plate for the Nitros, going 3-5 with a single and two doubles, scoring two runs and driving in two more. The right fielder also added two putouts in two chances. He starts the year with a .600 Batting Average and On Base Percentage, and a 1.000 Fielding Percentage.

Herren (Bellarmine) began his 2012 with a solid outing, going 4 innings, allowing just two hits, one unearned run, and 2 walks while striking out six. Due to a universal baseball rule, he is not credited with the win as he did not complete the necessary 5 innings to qualify. Nonetheless, his performance was elemental in obtaining the win.
