NYCBL Alumni Update
Ryan O’Rourke (Brockport ’08)

O’Rourke (Merrimack College), the former Brockport Riverbat has taken his talents to the south to play for the Fort Myers Miracle. He is playing Single A in Florida and is off to a remarkable start. O’Rourke has allowed just 6 hits with no runs in 8 games. The 25 year old lefty has been flourishing with a 5-0 record and may be brought up to the big leagues pretty soon. The Massachusetts native was drafted by the Minnesota Twins in the 13th round of the 2010 MLB Draft.

NEWS
“Rain continues dominance over NYCBL schedule”

Mother Nature has proven herself a worthy adversary. Not that there was any doubting that fact.

For the second time in as many nights, the New York Collegiate Baseball League schedule has been washed out.

Oneonta’s season opener at Sherrill will made up on June 24th. Olean and Hornell will play tonight’s game on Sunday as will the Geneva showdown between the Red Wings and the Twins. Rochester and Niagara have rescheduled July 16th.
