The Daily Recap:

Rochester 6, Genesee 3

HOUGHTON, N.Y. – The Ridgemen got back to their winning ways on Monday as they were able to hold on to beat Genesee at Kerr-Pegula complex. Rochester’s win was keyed by balanced hitting, as six different players knocked in an RBI. Trent Sullivan (MidAmerica Nazarene) paced the Ridgemen, going 2-4 with a double and a triple. Zachary Uher (Baruch) was handed his first loss on the season.

Twins 16, Niagara 4

GENEVA, N.Y. – The Twins exploded at the plate on Monday, scoring 16 runs on 19 hits in their rout of Niagara to win their third straight. David Oliger (Wabash) went 3-4 with a double and three RBI. The story of the night though was Tre Edwards (Murray State), who extended his streak to 11 straight games with a hit. This was the second straight loss for the Power.

Hornell 5, Olean 2

OLEAN, N.Y. – The Dodgers are trying to do their best to outdo Sherrill, winning their eighth straight game Monday night to keep them well ahead in first place. Seth Cornell (Houghton) put in a strong performance on the mound, giving up one run on six hits in eight innings of work to pick up his third win of the season. Olean has now lost three straight. The Silversmiths had their league-best 10-game winning streak snapped last week.

Oneonta 10, Cortland 7

ONEONTA, N.Y. – Oneonta got back to their winning ways Monday, as they were able to hold on to beat the Crush at Damaschke Field. Ramon Osuna Sanchez (Charleston) and Kody Ruedisili (Wofford) each had two RBI for the Outlaws. Cortland, who has now lost three straight, had three different hitters with two RBI, but it just wasn’t enough. Oneonta is now only one game back of Sherrill for the top spot in the East.

Salt Cats 10, Sherrill 8

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – The Salt Cats went through six pitchers Monday night but were able to pick up the win, handing Sherrill their fifth straight setback. Jon Borchert (Keuka) led the way for Syracuse, going 2-5 with a triple and three RBI. Kevin Brice (Pomona-Pitzer) was 2-4 with an RBI and a run scored in the loss, as the Smitties fall to 12-9 on the season.

NYCBL Game of the Day:
Geneva Twins at Hornell Dodgers

Both teams come into this game riding win streaks and will look to keep things rolling on Tuesday night at Maple City Park.

The Dodgers are currently 18-3 and are five games clear of the Twins in first place. The Twins, who are on a three game win streak, are 8-2 in their last ten games and have somewhat kept pace recently with the Dodgers.

The Dodgers lead the league in many statistical categories, both offensively and defensively, but the Twins handed them two of their losses.

Hitter of the Day: Mike Annone, 3B, Geneva Twins
4/6, 1 2B, 1 R, 1 RBI, .365 AVG, .461 OBP

Annone (Wilmington) enjoyed a successful night at the plate, like many Twins did, in their blowout win over Niagara. He has enjoyed a ton of success so far this season, and the he has the stats to show for it. Annone is currently tied for the league lead with six doubles, tied for the lead with two homers, second in RBI with 19, top ten in batting average, and top 15 in runs.

Pitcher of the Day: Seth Cornell, P, Hornell Dodgers
W, 8.0 IP, 1 ER, 2 BB, 6 H, 4 K, 3-1, 2.41 ERA, .215 OAVG, .283 OOBP

No surprise here that the Hornell Dodgers have another solid pitcher enjoying a hot start to the season. Cornell (Houghton) picked up his third win of the season on Monday with a fantastic eight-inning performance, giving up only one run. Since his first loss where he gave up three runs in two and two third innings, he has only given up three runs combined in his last three wins, a total of 14 innings pitched.

EDWARDS STILL STREAKING

Tre Edwards (Murray State) extended his streak of consecutive games with a hit to 11 on Monday. During the streak, he has accounted for seven multi-hit games and has three extra-base hits. Over the course of these 11 games, he is batting .530 and has raised his season average from a .381 to a .450, which is good for second in the league. Last year, Nick Sinay of the Syracuse JR Chiefs had a ten-game hit streak, which was the best in 2013.

Prime Stats:

If you can Dodge a Wrench...you Still Can’t Stop the Dodgers:
The Dodgers won every game they played last week thanks in large part to their dominant hitting and pitching. Currently the Dodgers are averaging just under eight runs scored a game and are second in the league with a team ERA of 2.80.

In the past week, the offense has scored in the double-digits an incredible four times. In the past week (seven games), the Dodgers nearly tripled their opponents score 67-23 averaging 9.5 runs scored and 3.2 runs allowed.

Even more incredible, three Hornell pitchers- Connor Grey, Tyler Slepski, and Elliot Lance-have a 0.00 ERA (with just one unearned run allowed) in a combined 13.1 innings pitched. Those same three pitchers have allowed just 10 hits, three walks, two hit batters while fanning nine, and holding opposing batters to an average of .218, and an OBP of .289.

As a team, they’ve held opponents to an average of .241 and an OBP of .303 in seven wins.
