The Daily Recap:

Game 1: Cortland 9, Salt Cats 5
CORTLAND, N.Y.—The Crush fell behind early but were able to mount a late comeback. Zephin Kash (Mansfield) and Nick Rybarczyk (Hillsborough CC) led the way for Cortland at the plate as they both drove in three RBI. Zachary Racusin (Marist) went 3-3 with two RBI and clubbed his first homer of the season.

Game 2: Salt Cats 10, Cortland 2
CORTLAND, N.Y.—The Salt Cats jumped out to an early lead again, but this time they were able to hold on and split the day with the Crush. All Star Tom Nagy (Bentley) went 2-3 with a triple and a home run while plating three runs and scoring two. Greg Jasek (Clarkson) hit his third homer of the season in the loss.

Genesee 20, Wellsville 3
WELLSVILLE, N.Y.—All nine batters registered an RBI for the Rapids as they ran wild against the Nitros. Genesee was led by the plate by Jack LaMarca (Ohio Northern) who was 2-5 with four runs scored and five RBI, including his first home run of the season. After the first inning, Wellsville only managed to score one run, as they fell to 10-28 on the season.

Game 1: Rochester 4, Twins 3
ROCHESTER, N.Y.—The Ridgemen were able to score one late to take the lead and hold on, as Connor Hamilton earned his fourth win of the season. Hamilton (Cedarville) went the distance giving up three runs (two earned) on five hits. He did it all in just 59 pitches. The Ridgemen drew eight walks in the win.

Game 2: Twins 5, Rochester 0
ROCHESTER, N.Y.—The Twins used a gem of a pitching performance to split the day with Rochester, as they moved three games clear of the Ridgemen for second in the Western Division. David Anderson (Muhlenberg) moved to a perfect 7-0 as he pitched a complete game shutout, giving up three hits while fanning three. He was superb with his control, as 53 of his 83 pitches went for strikes. Mitchell Lake (Mt Union) and Sean Feeney (Wilmington) each plated a run for Geneva.

JR Chiefs 12, Sherrill 8
SHERRILL, N.Y.—A superb night at the plate from Gabe Levanti helped pace the JR Chiefs. Levanti (Northeastern) was 4-5 with a home run and five RBI as well as three runs scored. Vinny Mallaro (Buffalo) played his part as well, plating three runs for Syracuse.

Red Wings 7, Oneonta 1
GENEVA, N.Y.—In the battle for the top spot in the East, the Red Wings were able to quiet the Outlaw bats and earn their second straight win. John Cruz (Dowling) showed up in the big game, going 3-4 with two doubles and an RBI. Four different pitchers combined to limit Oneonta to just five hits. Ben Mauseth (Grand Canyon) swiped two more bags, putting his league-leading season total at 33.

Hornell 9, Wellsville 0 (Forfeit)

Today in NYCBL History:

July 18, 2008—After all the scoring was done in the first, it was a pitchers’ duel in the last eight innings, as Brockport defeated Elmira 2-1. After the first, five pitchers combined to give up only four hits.
NYCBL Game of the Day:
Red Wings at Oneonta 7:00 pm

The battle for the top spot in the East continues on Friday as these two for the second consecutive night, this time in Oneonta.

Going into this game, the Red Wings have built a game and a half lead over the Outlaws and have won two straight. They are 8-2 in their last ten while Oneonta is 7-3 over the same span.

In their last four wins, Geneva has scored seven or more runs and has scored three or less in their last three losses. With the loss on Thursday night, Oneonta’s five game win streak was snapped.

This is the second last meeting between the two this regular season.

Hitter of the Day: John Cruz, OF, Geneva Red Wings
3-4, 2 R, 2 2B, 1 RBI, .317 AVG, .386 OBP

A battle for first place down the stretch is always a big game and typically requires a big performance from a player to earn the win. Cruz put in that performance Thursday night. The Levittown, New York native showed up when it mattered and raised his season numbers with this solid performance. His average is up .014 and his OBP is up .011. Cruz is currently on a four-game hit streak and the Red Wings are 3-1 during that span. He now has ten doubles on the season, which is good for fifth best in the league.

Pitcher of the Day: David Anderson, P, Geneva Twins
Day: W (7-0), 7.0 IP, 0 ER, 3 H, 3 K
0.68 ERA, 1.030 WHIP, .241 OAVG, .299 OOBP

Anderson continues to put in stellar performances and is climbing up the leaderboards and re-writing the record books. He has the second most wins in the league, behind only Hornell’s Jordan Accetta, and his 0.68 ERA is tops in the NYCBL. Seven wins puts Anderson in a tie for second for the most wins in a season since 2006 while his other pitching numbers continue to improve as well. His ERA is down .14 points and is getting even closer to zero. This was his longest outing of the season so far, breaking his previous high of six innings on June 23.

NYCBL Alumni Update:
Rob Scahill, P, Allegany County ‘06
Colorado Rockies, MLB

The former Allegany Nitro made his Major League debut for the Rockies in 2012 and has been back and forth to AAA since he moved up to the bigs. The Winfield, IL native has a 38-35 all-time record in the minor leagues and an ERA of 4.51. He has totaled 539 strikeouts in 617 innings of work and has an average WHIP of 1.441.

Scahill has appeared in 32 games for Colorado since 2012 and has a record of 1-0. In his 47.1 innings of work, Rob has struck out 26 batters and has given up 50 hits.

Currently, Scahill is 1-1 with one save for the Colorado Springs Sky Sox of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League and has a 3.66 ERA in his 27 appearances. He tossed five-plus scoreless stanzas with Colorado earlier this season.
